- Catholic Social Teaching and the Death Penalty: Catholic Social Teaching is rooted in a belief in the inherent dignity of the human person and the sanctity of all life. Made in the image and likeness of God, the human person is the foundation of a moral vision for society and stands at the heart of the Church's understanding of justice. As Catholics, we also believe in a consistent ethic of life, which extends from conception to natural death. Capital punishment contradicts this ethic. By allowing the state to end a life before natural death, the death penalty does not conform to our pro-life teaching. Not only does the death penalty violate the sanctity of human life, it also threatens innocent life. Despite our best efforts, our criminal justice system is imperfect. According to a 2014 study, an estimated 4% of those sentenced to death in the U.S. are actually innocent. More than 165 people have been exonerated from death row since 1973. Put another way, for every nine people who have been executed since the death penalty was reinstated in 1976, one has been proven innocent. For more information on how the death penalty violates the dignity of the human person, please visit: catholicismobilizing.org
